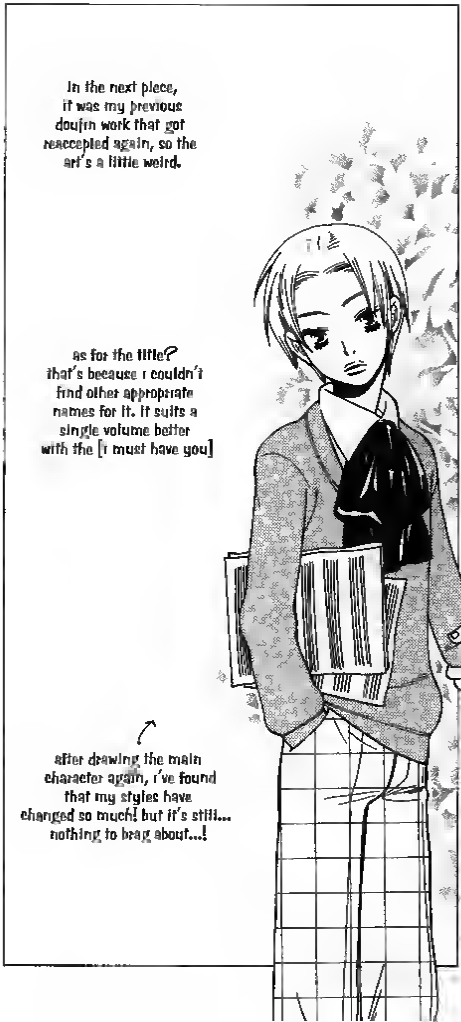
This manga was originally accepted by another of my publishers.
normally when being requested to draft up one-shots, there is no reason to decline.
However, when I received the message 'please draw us a short story', it was like walking into a maze.
thus the job is done, though it feels like there isn't a proper head or tails to this project. (faints).



In the next piece, it was my previous doujin work that got reaccepted again, so the art's a little weird.
As for the title? that's because I couldn't find other appropriate names for it. It suits a single volume better with the [I must have you]
After drawing the main character again, I've found that my styles have changed so much! but it's still... nothing to brag about...!
